

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES MEET HERE IN OCTOBER

Washington District Convenes at Ryland Methodist Church; Baltimore Branch at Metropolitan.

The Washington District Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Baltimore branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society are both to hold their annual meetings in this city in the near future. The Washington society is to meet October 1 at Ryland M. E. Church at 10:30 a.m. The Baltimore branch is to meet in Metropolitan Methodist Church October 9 and 10.

Miss Elizabeth F. Pierce is to preside at the Washington Society's meeting. Rev. J. H. Jeffries, pastor of Ryland Church, is to extend greetings. The following officers will make reports:

Mrs. E. L. Harvey, district secretary; Mrs. F. N. Lang, recording secretary; Mrs. J. A. Winner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. R. Dewhurst, treasurer; Miss Elizabeth Ford, contingent treasurer; Miss Lilly Jett, young people's work; Mrs. G. W. Kiehm, King's Herald; Mrs. G. W. Snyder, Little Light Bearers; Mrs. S. C. Cissell, Junior Missionary Friends; Mrs. C. C. McLean, bureau of supplies; Mrs. Court F. Wood, mite boxes; Mrs. J. Frank Campbell, memorials; Mrs. Charles W. Bohannon, Easter offering; Mrs. C. C. McLean, Christmas boxes; Mrs. W. B. Hardy, legislation; Miss Annabel Crandall, special work; Miss Ruth L. Crandall, instruction; Miss E. V. Allen, systematic giving; and Mrs. J. L. Haffey, extension secretary.

Mrs. C. E. Quinter, a delegate to the Mountain Lake Park School of Missions, is to give a review of the studies for the coming year, telling of missions in Africa. A box luncheon is to be served.

Delegates from the District of Columbia, Maryland, eastern Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and the Canal Zone are to be in attendance at the meeting of the Baltimore branch. Mrs. D. S. Colt, the president, is to preside.

Mrs. E. D. Huntley, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. J. T. King, associate secretary, will bring news of the work at home and abroad.

"War Emergency" is to be the subject of an address to be delivered by Carl Vrooman, assistant secretary of agriculture, at the evening session of the meeting. Mrs. William Fraser McDowell, wife of the resident Methodist bishop, is to deliver an address on "Ideals of Missionary Service." The King's Herald and Little Light Bearers will present a missionary pageant.

A "missionary melting pot" is to be a feature of the meeting. Articles of gold and silver will be solicited for the war emergency fund. Miss Marie Eakin will be in charge.

The local committee in charge consists of Mrs. E. L. Harvey, Mrs. W. R. Dewhurst, Mrs. Jackson A. Winner and Mrs. C. M. Forrest.

BACK IN SERVICE TODAY.

Maj. Gen. Hugh I. Scott, Retired Yesterday, Will Train Troops.

Maj. Gen. Hugh I. Scott, chief of staff, who was retired yesterday, will be recalled to active service today. Such orders were prepared yesterday.

Secretary Baker has said that Gen. Scott would be assigned to active service in connection with the training of troops in the United States. It now seems probable that Gen. Scott will be sent abroad to observe conditions on the battlefields of Europe.

Preparatory for an active command of training area or division, an observation tour in England and France seems probable. Gen. Scott will thus supplement his observations of the Russian troops in action, which he was permitted to watch during the offensive in Galicia, when in Russia with the Root mission.

Object to Draft of Farm Laborers.

A protest against drafting of farm laborers for the army will be laid before President Wilson tomorrow by a delegation of farmers and representatives organized by the federal board of farm organizations. Reports will be presented, it is said, stating that local and district boards have exempted few of the farmers necessary for maintenance of the agricultural industry, and that unless this policy is modified food production will be seriously curtailed next year.

COMMUNITY MEETING TO DISCUSS CITY MARKET

Senator King, Mrs. Baker and Others to Outline Their Plans to Cut Living Cost.

Senator King of Utah, Mrs. Newton D. Baker, wife of the Secretary of War, Commissioner Louis Brownlow and Corporation Counsel Conrad Syme are among those who have accepted invitations to be present at a community meeting at Wilson Normal School, 11th and Harvard streets northwest, tomorrow evening to discuss ways to reduce the cost of living. Others who have been invited to take part in the meeting are James Thrift, state treasurer of Baltimore, and Mrs. Frances Goodwin, manager of the municipal market in that city.

Senator King, who is the author of the "municipal market bill," now pending in Congress, is to explain his bill, the passage of which, he believes, would go far toward bringing about a reduction in the cost of living in this city. The meeting is not restricted to residents of any single section of the city, but is open to all persons interested in the proposition to establish a municipal market. The meeting will be under the direct charge of Miss Cecil Norton, general secretary of community activities in Washington; Mrs. Lyman F. Kabler, secretary of the community center having its headquarters at the Wilson Normal School, and H. H. Snyder, president of this community organization.

WILL CALL HER BEST MEN.
Canada's First Draft Will Be Confined to Class A.

OTTAWA, September 22.—Canada's first call to military service under selective conscription will be confined to men who rank as class "A" from the medical point of view. It was officially announced today. The call for reinforcements from Sir Arthur Currie, commander of Canadian forces in France, is for first-class fighting men, and the first draft will be to meet this need. Men of lower medical classification will not be required for active service for some time, it was said.
